POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION ENDORSES JOHN TYSON, JR FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Alabama Police Benevolent Association State Division has offered its support and endorsement to John Tyson, Jr., candidate for Alabama Attorney General.

The Alabama Police Benevolent Association is composed of approximately 5,000 law enforcement personnel from all over the state of Alabama. Ninety five percent of this association is made up of officers on the street. These officers are employed by federal, state, county or municipal governments. Their association is a non-profit organization dedicated to serving both men and women involved in Alabama law enforcement entities. The Alabama Police Benevolent Association is funded by membership dues and citizens contributions.

The Police Benevolent Association prides itself in providing outstanding service to their members and encourages their membership, their leadership and their community of supporters to take an active role in the political process.
